I'm so happy she's gone. I can't believe what see roped me into. I feel safe and relieved!

This is crazy, I'm not a spy, I'm not responsible for any of this. Get me out of here.

I should have known that I would end up taking Gobi to the goofy prom. At least Dad will give me the Jaguar for the night. That part will be cool

Mom and Dad are making me take Gobi to the prom! They do not understand that I need to perform with the band that night. I have no intention of taking her anywhere.

I'm sure that it could be fun, maybe you should skip the performance and just go, you know your parents will force you anyway.
